

Vestibulopathy

A change or reduction in the output of one or both of the balance portions of the inner ear (vestibular system) may be caused by infection, illness, trauma, or simply the natural aging process. Symptoms may include: positional vertigo, a sense of motion with rapid head movement, or a visually provoked motion intolerance.

Treatment Options Include:

- Vestibular Rehabilitation
- Medical Management
- Virtual Reality Therapy